Training opportunities can also be coordinated, based on the needs of individual School Councils. 3. Seek feedback from School Councils on various issues through the use of newsletters, direct mail, surveys and/or meetings. 4. Encourage exchange of correspondence between School Councils and the Association to inform and prioritize the work of AYSCBC	February June / September - January	Expenses include organization of presentations attendance at meetings $5,000	1. Increased awareness of AYSCBC and the services it offers on behalf of and in support of Yukon School Councils. 2. Increased participation of School Council members in AYSCBC sponsored events and other training related opportunities (ie. conferences, workshops, surveys, etc).	In addition to hosting conferences, workshops and meetings throughout the year, AYSCBC is also available to attend individual School Council meetings, as identified by councils. The association continues to look at other ways to engage with councils through the use of surveys, newsletters, direct mail and the use of online platforms. This feedback is integral in guiding the work of the association to ensure AYSCBC is working for you!

27	3. Coordinate Project Initiatives as identified by members	Organize and facilitate opportunities for members to meet to discuss common issues on an occasional basis. These could be issue-focused or regionally-focused.	As identified throughout the year.	Costs to be determined based on needs and priorities defined by School Councils.	To be determined. For example, a working group or round table comprised of School Council representatives could be formed to address a specific issue. Depending on the complexity of the issue, discussions may take place via conference/ video call. In this case, costs will be minimal other than the time to organize the calls. Other issues may require an person round table discussion which may or	One of the mandates of the AYSCBC is to facilitate opportunities for members to meet to discuss common issues from time to time. These can be issue-focused or regionally-focused. Depending on the matter at hand, this could take the form of a face to face meeting, conference call or roundtable discussion. One example was holding a Leaders' Summit which in part, helped facilitate discussions regarding the
