

The Arts Council	National Lottery Project Grants	10/07/2020, updated 27/07/2020, 5/10/2020, 29/3/2021	£77.9 million	The Arts Council has announced that its National Lottery Project Grants programme will reopen on 22 July 2020. The fund will be open to individuals, arts organisations, museums and libraries. We have prioritised reopening this programme to help fund independent organisations, creative practitioners and freelancers as quickly as possible. Until 31 August 2021, the fund will focus on the needs of smaller independent organisations and individual practitioners	England	In response to the Covid-19 crisis, the programme will be improved to make it more responsive to the needs of smaller independent organisations and individual practitioners, whilst still including a budget for grassroots music venues, touring extensions and national activities over and under £100,000.	Grants of between £1,000 and £100,000 will be available from the £77.9 million rolling funding programme until April 2021 to support those in the cultural sector and for work that has longer term positive impact such as Research and Development.	High number of applications are expected therefore unable to offer a time sensitive permission process. Applicants will be notified of the outcome of their application more quickly than the standard turnarounds of six weeks (for applications under £15,000) and 12 weeks (for applications over £15,000). However this depends on the number of applications we receive and may not always be possible.
