

Solutions	Federal	State/Local	Private Sector
Make changes to the PPP, by targeting small and micro businesses in underserved areas, ensuring set asides for CDFIs, which BIPOC-owned businesses utilize more than traditional banks.	X
Continue to prioritize state-level business investments (e.g., Michigan Economic Development Corporation funding) for grants and loans for small and micro businesses in underserved areas impacted by the pandemic.		X	X
Expand efforts to support small and micro businesses to prepare for future disruptive events (e.g., through targeted trainings and additional funding).		X	X
Continue to work with trade organizations to develop reopening guidelines that take into consideration the unique needs of small and micro businesses in underserved areas.		X	X
Build and strengthen the financial acumen of small and micro business owners through improved bookkeeping and record keeping.		X	X
Collect and disseminate disaggregated data on where pandemic-related aid has gone to small and micro businesses in underserved areas to identify gaps.			X
Research how other cities have supported small and micro businesses in underserved areas during the pandemic and share best practices.			X
Provide practical technical assistance for reopening, stabilizing, and sustaining small and micro businesses.			X